Guided Tour

The collaboration between professionals in gardening, landscaping, culture and gardens in the city of Lisbon are opened free of charge to the public.

Enriching the tradition of beautiful gardens along the Tagus River, in the western context of the other surrounding gardens, in dialogue with the building and the famous Jardim das Oliveiras, facing the river, the Jardim da Água, facing north, or space.

With the pandemic, circumstances have changed, but nature has not been cancelled. Editions took place in spring and autumn, over two consecutive weekends, in both virtual participants.

Come and discover the gardens of Lisbon!

This is a completely free event.

Meeting point: Bosque Vertical
