

St. Suzanne Cody-Rouge Community Ctr. Rain Garden

Last updated: 7/10/2023

19321 CHICAGO

Neighborhood: Franklin Park

Practice Type: Multiple

Additional Practice Type: Bioretention,DownspoutDisconnection

Project Description: This bioretention garden is part of a sustainability initiative funded by the Erb Family Foundation and led by Detroit Future City. The initiative is called "Land + Water Works." It is a coalition of 10 organizations including Friends of the Rouge and Sierra Club. This beautiful garden is one of three that St. Suzanne Cody Rouge Community Resource Center has installed on their inviting campus. The garden's provide beauty and attract a variety of pollinators.

REASON FOR PROJECT: ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS

Project Details

RECEIVED DRAINAGE CREDIT:

NO

PUBLIC OR PRIVATE:

PRIVATE

DESIGNER:

FRIENDS OF THE ROUGE (CYNDI ROSS), ST. SUZANNE CODY ROUGE COMMUNITY RESOURCE CENTER (KATIE LITTLE)

Share

LinkedIn

Facebook

Twitter

Email

Copy the URL

INSTALLER:

FRIENDS OF THE ROUGE, SIERRA CLUB, ST. SUZANNE CODY ROUGE COMMUNITY RESOURCE CENTER

MAINTAINER:

ST. SUZANNE CODY ROUGE COMMUNITY RESOURCE CENTER

PROJECT OWNER TYPE:

NON-PROFIT

PRACTICE WIDTH:

17.50 FT

PRACTICE LENGTH:

24.00 FT

PRACTICE AREA:

420 SQ FT

ACRES MANAGED:

0.05 ACRES

MILLION GALLONS MANAGED ANNUALLY:

0.02 MILLION GALLONS

STORM EVENT SIZE:

1.5

UNDERDRAIN:

NO

PROJECT COST:

$1,500

ANNUAL MAINTENANCE COST:

$200

Detroit, MI

stormwaterhub@detroitmi.gov

Contact Us

- GSI in Detroit
- Projects
- GSI Resources
- FAQs

About Us

Privacy Policy |

Terms & Conditions

Sponsored by Erb Family Foundation